ARTISTS

1 Ikarus, Freak, Yikes
DTR Crew Live Graffiti Art
Embassy

2pm - 9pm - 451 Colombo St
Wongi "Freak" Wilson, Nick "Ikarus" Tam and Jacob "Yikes" Ryan are Christchurch's top graffiti artists, and together they form the powerhouse of the Christchurch graffiti scene the DTR Crew. With a diverse range of skills between the three artists ranging from traditional graffiti styles, photo-realism, psychedelic funk and everything in between, this mural promises to be one to watch out for.

3 Gaby Montejo
Mothers
Honeypot Café

6.30 Sharp - 458 Colombo St
Gaby's creative practice is one where human relations often play an essential role. Meaning that a piece of art should have its origins in a sort-of friendly trust, and may even need people to trigger things happening. Making for a sculpture of the active kind, alive and real. Gaby Montejo is putting on an event not to be missed. This will NOT be a performance; it is more of a presentation or celebration of sorts.

5 Lady Poets
Pseudo-lebrity: Live Poetry Show
Honeypot Café

7pm - 10pm - 458 Colombo St
Playing on the theme of celebrity, fame and glamour Lady Poets promises a 'world-famous in Christchurch' line up and a raucous poetry show. Join them for a drink and indulge in some subversive wordplay and pop-culture catharsis.
Paparazzi and ultimate fans welcome, R18.

7 Jane McCulla
and Shona Clarkson
Live Pottery Demo's and Mandala
Form Gallery

5.15pm - 7.30pm - 468 Colombo St
The Form Gallery window will showcase live pottery wheel demonstrations by artists Jane McCulla and Shona Clarkson. Locals and visitors alike are also invited to take part in creating a community mandala - get your hands dirty and leave your own mark in a transient, environmental artwork opposite the gallery.

9 Ruby Ruin
Golden Girl
Admire Interiors

6pm - 9pm - 68 Durham St South
Radiating classic opulence and bedecked in award-winning finery, Ruby Ruin will adorn the balcony inside Admire Interiors, showing that she is far more than mere decoration!

8.15pm sees the dynamic duo of Tease and Trouble Productions united once more. Bonita Danger Doll will join Ruby Ruin at Admire Interiors for a tippie and a taste of things to come.

2 Bonita Danger Doll
Meandering Marilyn Monroe
Kennett Crafted Jewels

6pm - 8pm - 462 Colombo St
Local legend and femme fatale Bonita Danger Doll will channel the ultimate screen siren; adding sparkle and a hint of Hollywood glamour to the evening. Stop in for a snapshot earlier in the evening or later at: Admire Interiors
8.15pm - 9pm - 68 Durham St South

4 Jordana Bragg
Sunset BLVD Light Projection
Broker Web Wall

5pm onwards - 446 Colombo St
Referencing the 'big screen' of cinema, Hollywood BLVD, 2014, brings together classic sunrise and sunset shots from a variety of films. A deliberate deconstructing and reconstructing of original film narratives investigates colour transition, and encourages a playful activation of public space.

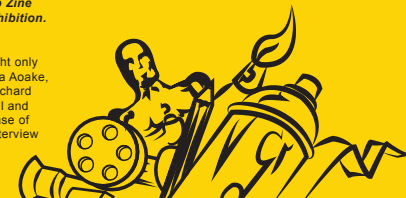

6 Tape Art NZ
Temporary Tape Art Mural
Landlely Law Building

Installation from Wednesday 362 Colombo St
Erica Duthie and Struan Ashby will add their own interpretation on Hollywood razzamatazz glitz to the first First Thursday as they transform the Landlely Law building with a temporary tape art mural. Join them for the process on Wednesday and Thursday to find yourself incorporated into the mural; drawing people into fantastical worlds making them famous for a day' is core to their ephemeral mural making.

8 Hana Aoake and Zach Williams
Fresh and Fruity II - Pop Up Zine
Shop, Performance and Exhibition.
Blue Scarlet

5pm - 10pm - 78 Buchan St
Fresh and Fruity II presents a one night only Showroom Apparel, with work by Hana Aoake, Louise Mahoney, Matthew George, Richard Ward, Ted Whitaker, Alessandra Banal and Zach Williams. It will also be the release of DML issue iii, New Vague Idea and interview with Liv Worsnop.
