

2023 marks the 60th anniversary of the Canterbury Potters' Association and our 50th exhibition. '50th' should be qualified with 'consecutive' – recent digging through the archive revealed there were a few exhibitions in that first decade too.

Over these many years, the club has seen a number of shifts, going from itinerant meetings in the homes of its members, Risingholme Community Centre and the Hard of Hearing Hall, to rented rooms at the Arts Centre, and finally in 1989 our wonderful clubrooms at the Avice Hill Reserve.

Our focus has also shifted, from advocacy of ceramics and the coordination of international visiting potters to the provision of classes and a fully equipped pottery workshop for members. 60 years has seen an enormous number of dedicated, enthusiastic potters come together to share their skills and love of the craft and clay, along with many cups of tea.

Here's to 50 or 60 more years.
