Write your name:

Names are important. Your name was chosen especially for you.
Who chose your name for you?

Some names are chosen because they connect to a family member or friend, or because it comes from your culture or heritage, or just because it sounds good!
Why did they choose your name?

What does your name mean? If you don't know you could Google your name and see if it has a meaning you don't know about. Does anyone else have the same name?
